| Health and Safety Policy

1. OUR PURPOSE

At Last Mile, we design, build, own and operate essential utilities infrastructure so people across Great Britain have access to the heat, power, water and wastewater services they need, every day.

Our purpose is to deliver utilities infrastructure that communities can rely on, now and in the future.

2. POLICY STATEMENT

Installing our networks safely and responsibly is fundamental for Last Mile. The Board recognises and accepts responsibility to provide a safe and healthy working environment to prevent injury and ill health for all Employees, contractors and visitors who attend Last Mile premises and transient work sites, and others who may be affected by the conduct of its operations.

In order to achieve this stated aim, Last Mile is committed to:

- delivering safely, on time, to budget and demonstrating a high standard of skill and care in everything it does, whilst ensuring always that due and appropriate consideration is given to the needs and concerns of Last Mile's various stakeholders;
- maintaining and continually improving a documented and independently accredited Safety Management System complying with the requirements of HS(G) 65 "Managing Health and Safety", BS EN ISO45001:2018, all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements, industry best practice and recognised guidelines, and any other customer specific requirements;
- setting an example of leadership in health and safety management by promoting a "Safety First" culture, providing a safe place of work, safe systems of work and safe plant and equipment, effectively controlling the health and safety risks to Employees, contractors and the general public, so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so;
- setting and reviewing at Board level, in conjunction with Last Mile's professional health and safety team, health and safety objectives and targets, accident investigations and audit programmes to facilitate continual improvement;
- consulting with Employees on issues relating to occupational health and safety, and providing appropriate information, instruction and training to ensure all Employees and contractors are aware of their health and safety obligations;
- undertaking an ongoing programme of occupational health surveillance;
- ensuring risk assessments are undertaken on an on-going basis, with Employees participating in the risk assessment process to proactively assist with the identification of hazards and the setting of prioritised objectives for the elimination and / or reduction of risk;
- promoting and protecting Employee mental health and wellbeing through regular mental health awareness communications, the provision of an employee assistance programme and mental health support;

- o ensuring that enough resource is allocated as required for the implementation of this Policy; and
- o communicating this Policy to Employees, contractors, customers, the general public and any other interested parties.
